ABOUT THE VINEYARDS:

CRESTA D'ORO

GREEN VALLEY OF RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

This Castello estate vineyard is located in the sub-ava of Green Valley, on the southwestern edge of the Russian river valley in Sonoma county. Situated only 15 miles from the coast, calm, foggy mornings give way to warm afternoons and cool, breezy nights-providing the perfect climate from growing pinot noir.

TERRA DE PROMISSIO

SONOMA COAST

The “Land of Promise” is a family owned and operated vineyard in the famed Petaluma Gap, where the wind and fog are funneled through the hillsides to create the perfect cool climate growing region for Pinot Noir. Two distinct clones (777 and 115) are planted here in clay loam soils, and the vineyard’s southwest exposure allows the fruit to mature to perfection, producing an elegant and balanced wine.

MORNING DEW RANCH

ANDERSON VALLEY

This Castello estate vineyard was purchased in 2015 from Burt Williams, founder of the iconic Williams Selyem Winery. Located in a very cool microclimate in the steep hillsides overlooking Anderson Valley, 12 acre vineyard is planted with DRC, 115, 777, Rochioli, 23, and 828 clones of Pinot Noir. The 2016 vintage received 94 points from Wine Enthusiast Magazine, and the vineyard has been named one of the Top 5 Pinot Noir Vineyards in Anderson Valley.
